Dear [REDACTED],

Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (EIR)

I refer to your email received by the Department on 5th May 2026 requesting information relating to intensive pig and poultry farms:

- The list of IPC Numbers (e.g P0085/05A) for those intensive permits operating in 2025.

I can advise that the Department has completed its search and confirms that it holds the information requested.

Annex A contains details of all intensive poultry (> 40,000 bird places) and pig (>2,000 places for pigs >30kg; >750 sow places) farms which held a Pollution Prevention and Control (PPC) Permit in 2025. Details of these PPC farm permits along with associated information is available on the IPRI public register <https://www.daera-ni.gov.uk/articles/public-registers>

If you require any clarification, believe that any part of your request has been overlooked, misunderstood or misinterpreted, please contact me in the first instance to see if it is a matter that can be resolved.

If you are unhappy with the manner in which your request for information has been handled or the decision you have the right to request a formal review by the Department. If you wish to do so, please write to The Review Section, The Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs, Information Management Branch, Room 507, Dundonald House, Upper Sustainability at the heart of a living, working, active landscape valued by everyone.

Newtownards Road, Ballymiscaw, BELFAST, BT4 3SB, within two months from the date of this letter.

If after such an internal review you are still unhappy with the response, you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner at Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, CHESHIRE SK9 5AF, who will undertake an independent review.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely
