

To be impartial, the NIEA cannot be seen to be providing commercially sensitive information that may be advantageous to one party over another. Publication must be considered in terms of disclosure to the “world at large” and not just to you, the requester. Once information is in the public domain it is outside our control. A Public Interest Test has been conducted and is attached as Annex A.

A press statement, dated 2016, regarding the court outcome of a case involving DONMAC Farms Ltd was published and this has been attached as Annex B. Please note that although DONMAC Farms Ltd were initially fined £8500, this fine was reduced to £2000 on appeal.

If you require any clarification, believe that any part of your request has been overlooked, misunderstood or misinterpreted, please contact me in the first instance to see if it is a matter that can be resolved.

If you are unhappy with the manner in which your request for information has been handled or the decision to release/withhold information, you have the right to request a formal review by the Department.

If you wish to do so, please contact The Review Section either by e-mailing daera.informationmanager@daera-ni.gov.uk or by post at The Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs, Data Protection & Information Management Branch, Floor 2, Jubilee House, 111 Ballykelly Road, Ballykelly, Limavady BT49 9HP, within two months from the date of this letter.

If after such an internal review you are still unhappy with the response, you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner at Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, CHESHIRE, SK9 5AF, who will undertake an independent review of the Department’s decision.

Yours sincerely,
