Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Act 2000

Thank you for your email received by the Department on 27 May 2026, which you sought the information in bold below.

1 - Please provide me with all material held by DAERA about Robert Huey since his retirement as chief vet.

I can advise that the Department has completed its search and confirm it holds some of the information you requested. However, the Department has decided not to disclose the information held for point 1, as it is being withheld under the following exemption of the Freedom of Information Act:

- Section 40(2) – Third party personal data of which you are not the data subject

In these instances, the Department is required to consider if disclosure would breach the first Data Protection Principle, which states that processing must be lawful, fair and transparent. The Department has considered this element within the test attached at Annex A and has determined that no lawful basis for disclosure under FOI exists. Please bear in mind that any disclosure must be considered in terms of disclosure to the “world at large” and not just to you, the requester. Consequently, third party personal data falling within the scope of this request has been withheld.

2 - Please include within this the material on DAERA's role in his appointment to the board of Horse Sport Ireland.

Following a search for information, the Department can confirm that it does not hold any information relating to Mr Huey's appointment to the board of Horse Sport Ireland.

If you require any clarification, believe that any part of your request has been overlooked, misunderstood or misinterpreted, please contact me in the first instance to see if it is a matter that can be resolved.

If you are unhappy with the way your request for information has been handled or the decision to release/withhold information, you have the right to request a formal review by the Department. If you wish to do so, please contact The Review Section either by e-mailing daera.informationmanager@daera-ni.gov.uk or by post at The Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs, Data Protection & Information Management Branch, Floor 2, Jubilee House, 111 Ballykelly Road, Ballykelly, Limavady BT49 9HP, within two months from the date of this letter.

If after such an internal review you are still unhappy with the response, you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner at Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, CHESHIRE, SK9 5AF, who will undertake an independent review of the Department's decision.

Yours sincerely,

Veterinary Service Animal Health Group
