Dear [REDACTED]

Environmental Information Regulation 2004

I refer to your request for information received by the Department on 16 May as detailed below.

Information including investment associated with the development, maintenance, operation, and promotion of Orangefield Eco Park/Orangefield Park

Under Regulation 12(4)(a) the Department is excepted from the duty to disclose the information on the grounds that the information sought is not held.

By way of assistance with your query, further to your additional email, received on 18 May 2026, flood alleviation schemes such as those outlined would be within the remit of the Department for Infrastructure (DfI). Colleagues in DfI may be able to assist further with your query and can be contacted by email: info@infrastructure-ni.gov.uk.

If you require any clarification, believe that any part of your request has been overlooked, misunderstood or misinterpreted, please contact me in the first instance to see if it is a matter that can be resolved.

If you are deaf or have a hearing difficulty you can contact the Department via the Next Generation Text Relay Service by dialling 18001 + telephone number.

If you are unhappy with the manner in which your request for information has been handled or the decision to release/withhold information, you have the right to request a formal review by the Department. If you wish to do so, please contact The Review Section either by e-mailing daera.informationmanager@daera-ni.gov.uk or by post at The Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs, Data Protection & Information Management Branch, Floor 2, Jubilee House, 111 Ballykelly Road, Ballykelly, Limavady BT49 9HP, within two months from the date of this letter.

If after such an internal review you are still unhappy with the response, you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner at Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, CHESHIRE SK9 5AF, who will undertake an independent review of the Department's decision.

Yours sincerely,
