Dear ██████████,

Thank you for your email of 22 May 2026 seeking information as to why NIEA had not yet responded to your request for information submitted on 17 March 2026. I am aware that NIEA General Enquiries acknowledged receipt of your email of 22 May.

I have reviewed the circumstances of your correspondence, and would like to offer my sincere apologies for the shortcomings in how your request was managed and for the frustration and inconvenience this has caused you. I am sorry that we did not handle your Information Request in accordance with the relevant guidance and within the expected timescales.

We recognise that individuals are entitled to expect requests for information to be handled carefully, fairly and within the required timescales. On this occasion, the standard you were entitled to expect was not met, and I am sorry this occurred due to an oversight in internal processes not being properly followed. As a result, your request was not logged and allocated as promptly as it should have been. I sincerely apologise for this oversight.

I can confirm that the Information Request in your email of 17 March 2026 has now been logged (DAERA/26-372) and actioned with a response issued to you separately on 4 June 2026 in line with the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 and our internal guidance.
