Dear [REDACTED]

Environmental Information Regulations 2004

I refer to your request for information received by the Department on 19 June 2026, in which you requested:

A copy of the current working plan referred to in the Waste Management License for the ReGen facility at Warrenpoint Port.

The information held which can be disclosed is attached at Annex 1.

Some of the information held constitutes personal data of which you are not the data subject. In these instances, the Department considers Regulations 12(3) 13(1) of the EIR to be engaged and is required to consider if disclosure would breach the first Data Protection Principle, which states that processing must be lawful, fair and transparent.

The Department has considered this element within the Lawfulness test attached at Annex 2 and has determined that no lawful basis for disclosure under EIR exists. Please bear in mind that any disclosure must be considered in terms of disclosure to the “world at large” and not just to you, the requester. Consequently, third party personal data falling within the scope of this request has been withheld.

If you are unhappy with the manner in which your request for information has been handled or the decision to release/withhold information, you have the right to request a formal review by the Department. If you wish to do so, please contact The Review Section either by e-mailing daera.informationmanager@daera-ni.gov.uk or by post at The Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs, Data Protection & Information Management Branch, Floor 2, Jubilee House, 111 Ballykelly Road, Ballykelly, Limavady BT49 9HP, within two months from the date of this letter.

If after such an internal review you are still unhappy with the response, you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner at Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, CHESHIRE SK9 5AF, who will undertake an independent review of the Department’s decision.

Yours sincerely,
