Dear [REDACTED]

Environmental Information Regulation 2004

With regard to your request for information received by the Department on 10 September 2026 which sought the following information:

Information relating to the CHP statistics for Northern Ireland.

The underlying installation-level information for Northern Ireland used in compiling the 2025 CHP statistics, including:

1. The name of each CHP installation/scheme;
2. Its location (town/city or postcode, where available);
3. Its individual electrical generating capacity;
4. CHP technology/prime mover, where held;
5. Industry/sector, where held; and
6. Any CHPQA reference or other identifier associated with the installation, where disclosure is possible.

In particular, the names and individual capacities of the installations contributing to the 33 MWe reported in the >10 MWe category.

I can advise that the Department has completed its search and can confirm that it holds the attached Annex A information related to your request. Further information

The supply of information in response to a freedom of information request does not confer an automatic right to re-use the information. Under UK copyright law you can use any information supplied for the purposes of private study and non-commercial research without requiring permission. Similarly, information supplied can also be re-used for the purposes of news reporting. An exception to this is photographs.

For other forms of re-use, for example publishing the information, you would need the permission of the organisation or person who owns the copyright. In the case of information produced by government departments and agencies you can re-use the information under the Open Government Licence. For information about this please see <http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/doc/open-government-licence/open-government-licence.htm>

If, however, the copyright is identified as belonging to somebody else, you will need to apply for permission. For information about how to obtain permission from a third party, please go to Intellectual Property Office's website at:

If you require any clarification, believe that any part of your request has been overlooked, misunderstood or misinterpreted, please contact me in the first instance to see if it is a matter that can be resolved.

If you are unhappy with the manner in which your request for information has been handled or the decision to release/withhold information, you have the right to request a formal review by the Department. If you wish to do so, please contact The Review Section either by e-mailing daera.informationmanager@daera-ni.gov.uk or by post at The Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs, Data Protection & Information Management Branch, Floor 2, Jubilee House, 111 Ballykelly Road, Ballykelly, Limavady BT49 9HP, within two months from the date of this letter.

If after such an internal review you are still unhappy with the response, you have the right to appeal to the Information Commissioner at Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, CHESHIRE SK9 5AF, who will undertake an independent review of the Department's decision.

Yours sincerely,
